

To the Worthy Livery of LONDON,

G E N T L E M E N,

YOU are now brought to a critical Period in the Choice of Representatives for this City, and, to the Honour of the Livery, they have ever opposed any Influence from Administration.

Will you then look tamely on, and not shew yourselves free and independent, when you hear, from undoubted Authority, that Orders are issued from Above, directing the Livery to vote for the four Old Members? A Circumstance which puts this capital City upon a Level with the lowest and most corrupt Borough.

Rouse therefore, Gentlemen, and make a Choice of that Man, who pledges his Honour that neither Place, Pension, or Post shall ever draw him off, from a strict Attention to your best Interests, MANUFACTURES and COMMERCE.

C O P Y of the O R D E R.

S I R,

BY favouring the Four late worthy Members of the City with your Vote and Interest, upon the present Election, you will oblige your best Friends here.

I am, S I R,

Tower,
March 19, 1768.

Your most humble Servant,

JOHN BODINGTON.
